operation cross-promotes and helps grow the other. People touring the farm hear about how the cattle are raised and find the meat for sale. The beauty of the trees can lead to knowledge of the timber and pine straw operation, as well as learning about the farm's availability for events. Rock quarry, hunting, timber, pine straw, multi-faceted cattle operation, event venue; all the money-making branches of the operation are promoted by all the others.

Bruce is a family-man at heart. He loves his work and enjoys the lifestyle, particularly the closeness it allows him with his family. McCormick Farms is a limited partnership of family members, and several work the farm, including his wife (Alex) and her parents (Tom and Lou Brooks). Bruce and Alex's two-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Olivia, represents the ninth generation of McCormick's. Everything he does is a means to guarantee the farm and its future for this new generation. While he might not always be out in the fields when he works, his work, and the McCormick Farms, are outstanding.
